

KINK COUNSELING INFORMED CONSENT

Kink Counseling is an opportunity to discuss your curiosities, concerns, and questions about consensual BDSM (bondage, discipline, sado-masochism) in a private and confidential setting. It is designed to help individuals, couples, and multi-partner relationships develop a positive relationship to their desire, as well as the skills and resources necessary to manifest a healthy expression of this desire in solo and interpersonal play. Kink Counseling is goal-oriented and strategy-focused: My aim is to listen carefully to your current situation and work with you collaboratively on here-and-now solutions to your kink concerns. Kink Counseling is client-centered, scheduled at intervals that suit your needs and schedule, and may be short- or long-term depending on your preferences.

Kink Counseling is not psychotherapy, and is not intended to diagnose or treat any mental illness as designated by the American Psychiatric Association. By signing this form, you are acknowledging that you are seeking consultation services for educational purposes only, and that you understand that I am not offering psychological, medical, or legal services. If you are seeking medical or psychotherapeutic intervention, referrals to kink aware professionals can be found on the National Coalition for Sexual Freedom website.
